Message from the Principal

Like you, four years ago I entered Holbrook High School, and, like you, I had hopes, expectations and concerns. We have accomplished much. It has been a good four years — a time of development and adjustment — for you and for me. It has been a productive time for me. For you it has been a time when the uncertainties of just growing up have been resolved to some extent. There will continue to be growth and maturation, but it has been during these four years that you have established a direction for your life that should provide you with the motivation and incentive to succeed and to accomplish those ideals that have been instilled in you by your parents, your teachers and your education. Much is available to you. Hopefully we have provided you with the mean by which you may achieve your goals.

I have especially enjoyed witnessing the growth of the Class of 1995 from uncertain freshmen to the young adults that you have become. It is my hope, and the hope of the faculty that you built on the ideals that you have developed here at Holbrook Junior/Senior High School to become valuable and valued members of society.

Congratulations and my best wishes to each one of you as you enter a world that has as much to offer you as you have to offer it. Give what you have and there is no doubt that you will succeed.

In Appreciation

We, the Class of 1995, wish to express our gratitude and appreciation to two women who, during our years here at Holbrook Junior/Senior High School, have become very important in our lives.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, you helped to guide us through our formative years as an advisor and as a friend. That advice and friendship was invaluable to us and to our successes during those years, and it has continued and will continue to be an inspiration to us. Thank you for everything that you have given and shared with us.

Ms. Leventhal, your efforts and your caring inspired us to the successes that we have achieved over the last two years. We truly appreciate those efforts and thank you for helping us become what we have become. Thank you for your hard work and your dedication.

With Appreciation,

The Class of 1995

Dedication

*"He lives to learn in life's hard school
How few who pass above him
Regret their triumph and his loss
Like her, because they love him."*

In School Days

Shortly after the 1994-95 school year began, a change took place here at Holbrook Junior/Senior High School. At first it was a subtle change, but as the year progressed it became more and more noticeable. A very important and very caring person was absent from our school, and the absence of that person and her smile and her encouragements made the corridors — especially in the morning when we were first dragging ourselves into the building — a little less cheerful.

Ms. Donna MacDermott is a dedicated and committed educator, one who cares about those around her. She has given much to the students here at Holbrook Junior/Senior High School and to the people of Holbrook through her hard work and her involvement in school and community activities, but, more importantly, she has given of herself. She has shared in our lives and allowed us to share in hers. She has given us encouragement, advice, and sometimes just a special word of sympathy that has made us feel special and loved. Even on those very few occasions when she felt it necessary to try to be stern, there could never be any doubt that she cared and still loved us.

As we prepare to leave Holbrook High, it becomes more obvious to us how important a person like Ms. MacDermott is to our well-being and happiness. She has made each of us feel just a little bit better about ourselves, often at times when we really needed that kind of support.

And so, we, the Class of 1995 and the Echo staff, recognize the achievement of an invaluable and unique woman. We acknowledge and thank her for all the memories she has given to us, for all the positive elements of humanity that she has shown us and especially for being who she is; and we proudly and gratefully dedicate this yearbook, the 1995 Echo, to a special woman and a special friend, Ms. Donna MacDermott.

On the Move!

Friends and Family

Stefanie,
You are as lovely as a flower,
whose petals are glistening
with the droplets of water,
which holds your future
crystal clear.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Janelle and Millie.

Heath,
We asked you to reach for the sky and you touched the stars.

Congratulations!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Steven,
Congratulations!
We will always love and support
you. May all your dreams come true.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Karin,

Never stop reaching for the stars — they're within your grasp!

*Love,

CHARLES LEE DISPOSAL, INC.

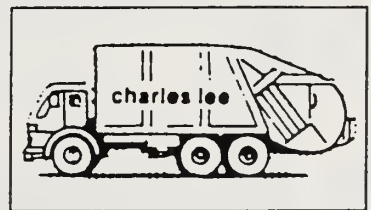

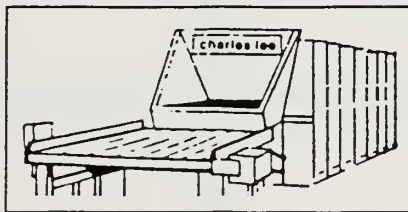

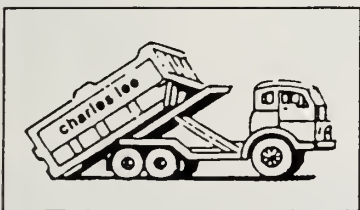

Charles Lee Disposal, Inc. is a family-owned minority company conveniently located in South Boston, Massachusetts. Founded in 1975, we have established a superb reputation for service at the most competitive rates in the Rubbish Disposal Industry. Our wide variety of equipment, some of the most state-of-the-art in the area, allows us to serve the needs of both small and large commercial clients from office buildings and condominiums, to some of the largest hospitals, hotels and municipal buildings in Boston and vicinity.

We would be happy to provide a prompt estimate of your rubbish disposal needs at no obligation to you. Or, if you require a formal bid for short- or long-term contracts, our experienced professional estimators will submit a detailed proposal.

Contact us when you want to dispose of your rubbish removal headaches.
